Estate No. 11-2636224
Vancouver Registry

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

IN THE BANKRUPTCY AND INSOLVENCY

IN THE MATTER OF THE NOTICE OF INTENTION TO MAKE A PROPOSAL OF TRUE LEAF PET INC.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

Name of Applicant: TRUE LEAF PET INC.

To: The attached service list marked as Schedule "A"

TAKE NOTICE that an application will be made by the Applicant, True Leaf Pet Inc. (the "Applicant" or "TLP") to the presiding judge at the Courthouse at 800 Smithe Street, Vancouver, British Columbia (by teleconference) on May 1st, 2020 at 9 a.m. for the Orders set out in Part 1 below.

PART 1: ORDER SOUGHT

1. An Order, substantially in the form attached hereto as Schedule "B", among other things:
 - (a) abridging the time for service of this Notice of Application, such that the application is properly returnable on this date;
 - (b) extending the stay of proceedings and the time for the filing of a proposal by the Application to June 16, 2020;
 - (c) approving the interim financing of True Leaf Brands Inc. ("True Leaf") by Lind Asset Management XV, LLC (in such capacity, the "Interim Lender"), which borrowings shall be guaranteed by True Leaf Cannabis Inc. (Estate No. 11-2636226, Vancouver Registry No. B-200194) ("TLC"), TLP (Estate No. 11-2636224, Vancouver Registry No. B-200195), and True Leaf

Investments Corp. (Estate No. 11-2636236, Vancouver Registry No. B-200196) (“TLI”), substantially in accordance with the terms of the term sheet (the “Interim Financing Agreement”);

- (d) granting the following priority charge over the assets of the Applicant, which charges shall rank in the priority set out in the proposed order:
 - (i) a priority charge in favour of the Interim Lender for all amounts owing under the Interim Financing Agreement limited to $700,000 (the “Interim Financing Charge”).

2. Such further and other relief as this Honourable Court may deem just.

PART 2: FACTUAL BASIS

BACKGROUND

1. True Leaf, TLC, TLP and TLI (collectively the “Companies”) each filed a Notice of Intention to make a Proposal (“NOI”) with the Office of the Superintendent of Bankruptcy on April 1, 2020 (the “Filing Date”) and filed with the Superintendent of Bankruptcy on April 2, 2020 pursuant to Part III, Division I of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. B-3, as amended (the “BIA”).
2. TLC (formerly known as True Leaf Medicine Inc.) was incorporated under the Business Corporations Act of British Columbia (the “BCA”) on July 4, 2013. TLC’s parent company, True Leaf (formerly known as True Leaf Medicine International Ltd.) was incorporated under the BCA on June 9, 2014.
3. TLC was established to hold a federal cannabis license that was applied for in 2013.
4. In 2015, True Leaf became a publicly traded company by completing a statutory plan of arrangement through a share exchange with Noor Energy Corporation.
5. Since its inception, True Leaf has raised approximately $25 million which provided the funding for acquiring 40 acres of land in Lumby, BC on which True Leaf constructed an 18,000 square foot facility for its operations.
6. In late 2015 True Leaf pivoted into the pet industry by launching a line of hemp supplements through its wholly owned TLP subsidiary.
7. TLP developed ‘soft chew’ and ‘oil’ product formulations with hemp seed and other active ingredients to support calming, joint-pain relief and omega 3 supplementation, then marketed these products to the specialty pet industry in Canada, the USA and over 17 countries in Europe.
8. TLP’s 2019 revenues reached $2.3 million with its products being sold in 3500 stores globally.

9. In February 2019, True Leaf raised $4.5 million through the issuance of a convertible, secured note (the “Notes”) with the intention of re-branding its pet business and completing the construction of its cannabis facility.
10. In anticipation of a growth trajectory, True Leaf bolstered its executive suite and sales staff.
11. TLC’s cannabis facility was completed in late 2019, however the Companies’ sales did not meet expectation and it began to experience liquidity issues.
12. True Leaf’s first payment on the Notes was due on March 23, 2020.
13. As a result of its lack of liquidity, True Leaf was unable to make the payment and accordingly the holder of the Notes threatened to call its loan if True Leaf didn’t remedy its default.
14. With the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic and its implications on global trade in conjunction with its Note default, True Leaf’s management and board decided to seek a stay of proceedings to allow it the time necessary to refinance and/or restructure its debts.
15. As a result, on April 1, 2020, the Companies signed NOI’s which were filed by the Proposal Trustee with the Superintendent of Bankruptcy and accepted on April 2, 2020.

UPDATE ON THE COMPANY’S ACTIVITIES

16. Prior to filing the NOI, the Companies’ management were in discussions with several parties regarding potential refinancing or sale transactions. Those discussions have continued subsequent to the filing of the NOI with parties being advised that a sale process would likely be commenced in the near term.
17. The cash flow indicated a cash need of approximately $700,000, to maintain the Companies’ operations in the normal course while it explored alternatives to either refinance or restructure True Leaf.
18. The funding to finance this cash need was anticipated to come from debtor-in-possession financing (“DIP”). Prior to filing its NOI, the Proposal Trustee in conjunction with the Companies’ management contacted several parties to solicit interest in providing the DIP.
19. The Companies’ legal counsel contacted counsel for the Interim Lender to inform it of the Company’s plan to restructure its balance sheet and avail itself of the provisions of the BIA. The Interim Lender was supportive of the Companies’ plan and indicated its willingness to provide a DIP to assist with the process.
20. Two term sheets for DIP were received from third party lenders and a third term sheet was received from the Interim Lender.

21. After a series of discussions and negotiations with the Interim Lender, the Companies decided to accept its DIP credit facility (the “Interim Financing Agreement”).
22. A summary of the principal terms of the Interim Financing Agreement are as follows:
23. A maximum amount of $700,000 is to be provided commencing with an initial advance of $250,000;
24. Subsequent weekly draws of a maximum of $50,000 may be requested by the Companies with a four week rolling maximum of $200,000;
25. A facility fee of $14,000 and a due diligence fee of $5,000 which will be earned upon approval by this Honourable Court and which is to be paid from the initial advance;
26. The maturity date of the Interim Financing Agreement is the earlier of:
 - (a) August 15, 2020;
 - (b) The date of closing a Court approved sale of substantially all of the Companies’ assets;
 - (c) The date on which an event of default occurs; or
 - (d) The day the stay of proceedings expires.
27. Under the Interim Financing Agreement, interest is to accrue at the rate of 10% per annum and the Companies are responsible for the repayment of all legal and other costs associated with the Interim Financing Agreement.
28. The Interim Financing Agreement is conditional upon approval by this Honourable Court and the granting of a first ranking priority charge against all of the Companies’ assets.
29. The Interim Financing Agreement also requires the Companies to seek the approval of this Honourable Court prior to May 14, 2020 for a sale process providing for the separate marketing and sale of the Companies’ pet business and its land and building.
30. The Proposal Trustee has reviewed the Interim Financing Agreement and its terms and conditions. The Proposal Trustee is of the opinion that the terms and conditions are reasonable and consistent with DIPs approved in other similar BIA or Companies’ Creditors’ Arrangement Act proceedings.

31. The Proposal Trustee would therefore support the Company in seeking approval of the Interim Financing Agreement and the granting of a priority charge to the Interim Lender

ASSETS OF THE COMPANY

32. As indicated previously, True Leaf has two primary businesses.
33. The pet business is operated through True Leaf's wholly owned subsidiary, TLP while the cannabis facility and license are held by TLC.
34. TLC's cannabis facility was appraised by Colliers International as of April 17, 2020 for a value in excess of the Secured Lender's debt. The Proposal Trustee has not attached a copy of the appraisal to its report over concerns that it may impact the values achieved in a subsequent sale process.
35. The Interim Lender has been provided with a copy of the appraisal.
36. Prior to any advances being made pursuant to the Interim Financing Agreement, the Secured Lender is owed approximately $5.8 million.

COMPANY'S REQUEST FOR AN EXTENSION

37. The Companies are seeking an extension of the stay of proceedings from May 2, 2020 to June 16, 2020. The Companies are seeking an extension
38. to provide the Companies with the time required to pursue a refinancing, recapitalization, sale or investment transaction that would allow the Companies to restructure its balance sheet and formulate a proposal to its unsecured creditors. In this regard, the Companies intend to work with the Proposal Trustee in formulating a Sale and Investor Solicitation Process with the expectation to be back before this Honourable Court within the next few weeks seeking its approval.
39. The Proposal Trustee supports the Companies' request for an extension of its stay of proceedings based on the following:
40. The Companies are acting in good faith and with due diligence;
41. The Interim Lender is supportive of the Companies' efforts and is providing an Interim Financing Agreement to fund the post-filing costs associated with this proceeding as projected in the Cash Flow Projection; and
42. Subject to further evaluation, there appears to be value for the unsecured creditors and some time is required to explore alternatives to maximize the value for all stakeholders and secure the continuation of the business.

PART 3: LEGAL BASIS

1. The Companies rely on Part III, Division I of the BIA, Rule 3 of the BIA Rules, Rule 22-5(8) of the Supreme Court Civil Rules and the inherent jurisdiction of this Honourable Court.
2. The Court has the power to abridge the time for service pursuant to Rule 6(4).

Bankruptcy and Insolvency General Rules, CRC, c 368, r 6(4)

The Interim Financing Facility

3. The Companies are presently facing a liquidity crisis and, absent further funding, it is out of liquidity needed to fund its operations.
4. The Interim Lender has agreed to provide the DIP credit facility to the Companies pursuant to the terms of the Interim Financing Agreement.
5. Without the Interim Financing, the Companies will be unable to finance its operations or its efforts to restructure its business.
6. On application by a debtor in respect of whom a notice of intention was filed under section 50.4 or a proposal was filed under subsection 62(1) and on notice to the secured creditors who are likely to be affected by the security or charge, a court may make an order declaring that all or part of the debtor's property is subject to a security or charge – in an amount that the court considers appropriate – in favour of a person specified in the order who agrees to lend to the debtor an amount approved by the court as being required by the debtor, having regard to the debtor's cash flow statement referred to in paragraph 50(6)(a) or 50.4(2)(a), as the case may be. The security or charge may not secure an obligation that exists before the order is made.
7. The Court may order that the security or charge rank in priority over the claim of any secured creditor of the debtor.
8. The Court may order that the security or charge rank in priority over any security or charge arising from a previous order made under subsection (1) only with the consent of the person in whose favour the previous order was made.
9. In deciding whether to make an order, the court is to consider, among other things, the following factors under section 50.6(5) of the BIA
 - (a) the period during which the debtor is expected to be subject to proceedings under this Act;
 - (b) how the debtor's business and financial affairs are to be managed during the proceedings;

- (c) whether the debtor's management has the confidence of its major creditors;
 - (d) whether the loan would enhance the prospects of a viable proposal being made in respect of the debtor;
 - (e) the nature and value of the debtor's property;
 - (f) whether any creditor would be materially prejudiced as a result of the security or charge; and
 - (g) the trustee's report referred to in paragraph 50(6)(b) or 50.4(2)(b), as the case may be.
10. Without the proposed Interim Financing Agreement, the Companies are unable to fund their normal ongoing business operations and restructuring efforts during the proposal proceedings. No creditor will be materially prejudiced as a result of this Interim Financing Agreement. The secured lender is the Interim Lender, and is therefore supportive of the Interim Financing Agreement. The Proposal Trustee supports the Interim Financing Agreement and has advised in the First Report of the Proposal Trustee that it is necessary for the restructuring.

Extension of Stay

11. True Leaf relies on section 50.4(9) of the BIA.

The insolvent person may, before the expiry of the 30-day period referred to in subsection (8) or of any extension granted under this subsection, apply to the court for an extension, or further extension, as the case may be, of that period, and the court, on notice to any interested persons that the court may direct, may grant the extensions, not exceeding 45 days for any individual extension and not exceeding in the aggregate five months after the expiry of the 30-day period referred to in subsection (8), if satisfied on each application that

- (a) the insolvent person has acted, and is acting, in good faith and with due diligence;
- (b) the insolvent person would likely be able to make a viable proposal if the extension being applied for were granted; and
- (c) no creditor would be materially prejudiced if the extension being applied for were granted.

Re Roylton Banquet and Convention Centre Ltd., [2007] O.J. No. 2352.

12. True Leaf has acted, and is acting, in good faith and with due diligence.

13. No creditor or stakeholder will be materially prejudiced if the extension being applied for were granted.
14. True Leaf submits that, in the circumstances, the extension sought is appropriate and necessary.
15. The Trustee supports the extension of the stay.

Part 8: Such credit facility shall be on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the term sheet between the Interim Lender, True Leaf and the Guarantors dated April ♦, 2020 (the “Interim Financing Agreement”) attached as Exhibit ♦ to the Trustee’s Report.

other notices, or to apply to this Court for the appointment of a receiver, receiver and manager or interim receiver, or for a bankruptcy order against the Applicant; and

Part 18: The Interim Financing Agreement, the Definitive Documents, or Interim Financing Charge shall not be rendered invalid or unenforceable and the rights and remedies of the Interim Lender shall not otherwise be limited or impaired in any way by: (a) the pendency of these proceedings and the declarations of insolvency made herein; (b) any application for bankruptcy order issued pursuant to the BIA, or any bankruptcy order made pursuant to such applications, including the Applicant being deemed to be a bankrupt pursuant to the BIA; (c) the filing of any assignments for the general benefit of creditors made pursuant to the BIA; (d) the initiation of any other proceedings under the BIA; (e) the initiation of any proceedings under the CCAA; (f) the provisions of any
