IN THE MATTER OF THE RECEIVERSHIP OF SKYSERVICE AIRLINES INC.

BETWEEN:

THOMAS COOK CANADA INC.

Applicant

SKYSERVICE AIRLINES INC.

Respondent

(Application under s. 243(1) of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act and s. 101 of the Courts of Justice Act for a national receiver)

AFFIDAVIT OF KARIM NENSI
(sworn March 31, 2010)

I, Karim Nensi, of the City of Brampton, in the Region of Peel, MAKE OATH
AND SAY:

1. I am the Chief Financial Officer for Thomas Cook Canada, Inc. ("TCCI") and have been personally involved in the contractual relationship between TCCI and Skyservice Airlines Inc. ("Skyservice"), a provider of chartered aircraft service. I therefore have personal knowledge of the matters hereinafter deposed to. Where my information is stated to be on information and belief, I believe this information to be true.

2. This affidavit is sworn in support of an application requesting an order to appoint a receiver of the assets, property, and undertakings of Skyservice under section 243(1) of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act ("BIA") and section 101 of the Courts of Justice Act ("CJA").

TCCI and Skyservice

3. TCCI is a company incorporated under the laws of Ontario and is headquartered in Toronto. It is an indirect subsidiary of Thomas Cook Group, PLC ("Thomas Cook"), a publicly held company with head offices in London, England. Thomas Cook is a leading international leisure travel group and is organized into five geographical divisions: the UK and Ireland, Continental Europe, Northern Europe, German Airlines, and North America.

4. TCCI is responsible for the Canadian operations of the North American division of Thomas Cook. It is a Canadian tour operator licensed under the Travel Industry Act. It has more than 1,000 employees in Canada and a network of tour operators, wholesalers and travel agencies throughout Canada operating under several brands. TCCI offers its customers a "one-stop shopping" experience for holidays and leisure travel: it charts flights under the Sunquest brand, arranges accommodations, travel insurance, and rental cars, and provides a complete array of related services. For the year 2009, TCCI made holiday arrangements for approximately 1.3 million customers for travel to destinations around the world. Approximately 305,000 of these customers flew on planes operated by Skyservice under the Sunquest brand during TCCI's winter season.

5. Skyservice is a Canadian commercial charter airline that operates principally out of Toronto. TCCI uses Skyservice to charter flights for TCCI's Sunquest customers; Skyservice leases commercial aircraft and provides the personnel to operate the aircraft. Skyservice has more than 1,000 employees and operates approximately 20 commercial aircraft for destinations to Canada, the United States, the Caribbean, Mexico, and Europe. Because the industry is seasonal, the planes used by Skyservice during TCCI's winter season for Sunquest passengers departing from North America are used in Europe by Thomas Cook during the summer season.

6. Skyservice's majority shareholder is Gibralt Capital Corporation ("Gibralt"), which indirectly acquired a majority interest in the Skyservice chartered airline business on October 19, 2007. Gibralt is a private investment company headquartered in Vancouver, British Columbia.

7. In addition to being one of Skyservice's two primary customers, TCCI is also a significant secured creditor of Skyservice. As such, it has two roles: customer and lender.

Contracts between TCCI and Skyservice

(a) Term Sheet

8. TCCI has various contractual relationships with Skyservice to meet the travel requirements of TCCI's Sunquest customers. A term sheet dated February 6, 2002, (the "Term Sheet") sets out the objectives of the relationship between TCCI and Skyservice. The Term Sheet is signed by Skyservice and My Travel Canada Holidays Inc., a predecessor company of TCCI. It became effective on November 1, 2002, and terminates in accordance with its terms on April 30, 2011. The Term Sheet is not attached to this affidavit because it contains commercially sensitive information relating to the role of TCCI as Skyservice's customer.

9. The Term Sheet contemplates the parties entering into Charter Agreements whereby, subject to certain exceptions, Skyservice would be TCCI's air carrier for the operation of dedicated aircraft, with a right of first refusal for any additional aircraft. Skyservice is entitled to three principal sources of compensation under the Term Sheet including: (i) an aircraft tail fee (base compensation and aircraft months); (ii) commission on ad hoc flights on dedicated aircraft; and (iii) bonuses for achieving certain performance objectives.

(b) Aircraft Sublease Agreements and Charter Agreements

10. To meet its obligations to TCCI, Skyservice entered into Aircraft Sublease Agreements with various parties including Thomas Cook Airlines Limited ("Thomas Cook Airlines"), a related TCCI company. Skyservice and TCCI then entered into a Charter Agreement for each plane subleased by Skyservice and chartered by TCCI.

11. Thomas Cook Airlines and Skyservice entered into six Aircraft Sublease Agreements for three A320 Aircraft and three B757 Aircraft. They also entered into a number of agreements related to the Aircraft, such as Engine Sub-Lease Agreements, Airframe Sub-Lease Agreements, Intermediate Aircraft Lease Agreements, and Maintenance Agreements. Under the Maintenance Agreements, all of which are substantially similar, Skyservice, as the sub-lessee, agreed to be responsible for certain maintenance costs.

12. The parties entered into seven Charter Agreements, six corresponding to the Aircraft Sublease Agreements with Thomas Cook Airlines and one related to an aircraft subleased from another party. With the exception of the latter Charter Agreement, which was effective as November 1, 2001, and expires March 7, 2011, the remaining Charter Agreements were effective as of November 4, 2009, and expire between March 27 and April 26, 2010. The material terms of the Charter Agreements are as follows:

- (a) TCCI agreed to pay Skyservice a Charter Fee on a weekly basis at least seven days in advance of each flight;
- (b) Skyservice agreed to operate the Aircraft in accordance with the winter and summer programs set out in Schedule C of the Charter Agreement;

- (c) Skyservice agreed to deploy the Aircraft as may be requested by TCCI for flights to any destinations that may be served by such Aircraft type from Toronto or other Canadian departure points as may be agreed;
- (d) Skyservice agreed to provide all of the personnel, services and facilities associated with flights under the Charter Agreement and agreed to be responsible for placing hull and liability insurance for the subject Aircraft; and
- (e) Skyservice agreed to pay: (i) all costs related to operation of the Aircraft; (ii) all costs related to any interruption of any flight once the Aircraft was airborne; and (iii) salaries and all other expenses, including lodging and transportation to and from airports, for the flight crew and other personnel furnished in respect of the Aircraft.

13. The monies payable by TCCI to Skyservice under the Term Sheet and Charter Agreements fluctuate over the course of the year because the travel industry is seasonal. As of the date of the swearing of this affidavit, TCCI has made all payments owing to Skyservice under the various contractual arrangements.

(c) Charter Transportation Agreements

14. TCCI and Skyservice formalized the requirements for the winter and summer flight programs in various charter transportation agreements (the "Charter Transportation Agreements"). Each Charter Transportation Agreement sets out the date, origin, destination, number of seats, baggage allowance, and Charter Fee for the flight(s). The Agreements can relate to a flight that takes place once or to a flight that repeats over multiple rotations.

15. Skyservice concurrently followed a similar process with its other primary customer, Signature Vacations (the former Canadian subsidiary of TUI Travel PLC that is now amalgamated with Sunwing Vacations), to ensure that it had the ability to meet both TCCI's and Signature Vacations's needs. I estimate that TCCI and Signature Vacations represent 52% and 48% respectively of Skyservice's business.

Skyservice's financial problems and TCCI's purchase of Skyservice's secured debt

16. Over the past few months, Skyservice encountered financial problems and therefore approached TCCI with a view to amending the existing financial arrangements. In September 2009, one of Skyservice's principal customers, Signature Vacations, announced a proposed combination with Sunwing Vacations (an entity that has access to a fleet of Sunwing planes) that was completed in January 2010. Furthermore, I am informed by ^{Rob Giguere (President and CEO of Skysen)} Skyservice that Skyservice believed that Signature Vacations would likely seek to exit the relationship with Skyservice as a result of this combination.

17. This possibility was also implied to the public. In an article published in a French-language trade magazine, Colin Hunter, President of Sunwing, when speaking about the future of Signature Vacations and Sunwing in Quebec, said:

I don't believe this will take place in the context of harmonious business relationships. Continuing my reply to your question, Signature is still contractually bound to Skyservice for two years, in the rest of Canada. We were contacted by this carrier's management to explore our intentions. We will see what will come out of these discussions [translated].

The article is attached hereto as Exhibit "A".

18. In January 2010, Skyservice's principal secured lenders were Roynat Inc. and Integrated Private Debt Fund LP (the "Lenders") under a credit agreement (the "Credit Agreement"). Skyservice notified the Lenders that it was or would be in breach of certain financial covenants under the Credit Agreement. The Lenders took the view that the Signature Vacations merger with Sunwing Vacations called into question Skyservice's ability to remain a going concern over the long term such that there was an event of default under the Credit Agreement. I am also informed that there were further events of default.

^{by Johnny Ciampi (Director of the Board of Directors of Skyservice)}

19. In and around February 1, 2010, I was advised in a meeting attended by Rob Giguere (President and CEO of Skyservice) and Johnny Ciampi (Director on the Board of Skyservice) (together, the "Skyservice Representatives") and Jamie Farrar (Executive Vice President of Gibral) that Skyservice would likely not be in a position to continue operations beyond February 5, 2010, without some financial assistance from TCCI.

20. I am informed by ^{Johnny Ciampi} ~~the Skyservice Representatives~~ that Skyservice told the Lenders that it was engaging in negotiations with TCCI whereby TCCI would provide funding to Skyservice. I am also informed that ^{by Johnny Ciampi} on January 29, 2010, the Lenders and Skyservice entered into a forbearance agreement to provide Skyservice with time to restructure its business and affairs.

21. TCCI is a significant stakeholder and would have been seriously impacted if Skyservice's financial position deteriorated to the point that it stopped providing services to TCCI for its Sunquest charters mid-season. For example, TCCI had more than 165,000 seats allocated for Sunquest passengers scheduled to travel between February 5 and April 30, 2010. TCCI's primary objectives were, therefore, to protect these passengers from any Skyservice operational disruption, to allow Skyservice and TCCI the opportunity to consider new arrangements for a working relationship that would mutually benefit both parties, and to give Skyservice time to restructure the operations and find alternative financing.

22. TCCI therefore purchased the debt obligations (the "Secured Debt") owed by Skyservice to the Lenders and all security granted by Skyservice in connection therewith through an Assignment and Assumption Agreement effective February 12, 2010. Approximately $8.6 million is due and payable under the Secured Debt on March 30, 2010. A copy of the Assignment and Assumption Agreement is attached as Exhibit "B".

23. Simultaneously, TCCI and Skyservice entered into an Amended and Restated Credit Agreement reflecting the change in TCCI's role to secured lender. A copy of the Amended and Restated Credit Agreement, excluding commercially sensitive schedules, is attached as Exhibit "C".

24. Article 2.07 of the Amended and Restated Credit Agreement states that all guarantees and security granted by Skyservice listed in Schedule A to the Agreement would continue in full force and effect as security for the Secured Debt. In Article 2.11, Skyservice confirms that the security remains in place.

25. Schedule A of the Amended and Restated Credit Agreement sets out the security granted by Skyservice in favour of TCCI in respect of the Secured Debt (the "Security Documents"). These include:

- (a) A General Security Agreement given by Skyservice granting a security interest in all of Skyservice's property and assets (the "Skyservice GSA"). A copy of the Skyservice GSA is attached as Exhibit "D";
- (b) A Debenture (the "Building Debenture") granting security over a low-rise building in an industrial complex near Pearson International Airport in the GTA ("Pearson") that Skyservice purchased from the estate of Canada 3000 Airlines Ltd. A copy of the Building Debenture is attached as Exhibit "E";
- (c) A Debenture (the "Hangar Debenture") granting security over real and leasehold property at two hangars Skyservice leases from the Greater Toronto Airports Authority. A copy of the Hangar Debenture is attached as Exhibit "F";
- (d) An Intellectual Property Security Agreement given by Skyservice granting security over Skyservice's intellectual property (the "IP Security Agreement");
- (e) Guarantees of all obligations given by (i) 6761551 Canada Inc. ("676"), the shareholder of Skyservice, (the "676 Guarantee"); and (ii) 6806929 Canada Inc. ("680"), a predecessor by amalgamation to Skyservice (the "680 Guarantee"), among others; and
- (f) General Security Agreements given by (i) Skyservice's predecessor (the "675 GSA") granting a security interest in all of Skyservice's property and assets; (ii)

676 granting a security interest in all of 676's property and assets; and (iii) 680 granting a security interest in all of 680's property and assets, among others.

26. The Lenders registered their security documents under the PPSA. The registration dates are September 26 and October 9, 2007. TCCI preserved the dates of registration when it assumed the Secured Debt and the related security; it also registered the change in secured party under the PPSA.

27. One of the remedies of TCCI under the Skyservice GSA and other Security Documents is to apply to any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a receiver for all or any portion of the Skyservice property and assets charged.

28. The Amended and Restated Credit Agreement is governed by the laws of Ontario and Canada as applicable (Article 3.07). In Article 3.08, the parties irrevocably attorn to the jurisdiction of the courts of Ontario, which will have non-exclusive jurisdiction over any matter arising out of the Agreement.

29. The Amended and Restated Credit Agreement contains a strict confidentiality provision that prevented TCCI from disclosing the fact that the agreement had been entered into as well as the terms of the agreement. In addition, as a significant secured creditor of Skyservice, TCCI could not disclose that Skyservice was experiencing financial difficulties: to do so would have been a breach of the lender-borrower confidential relationship. Also, such a disclosure would have the potential of seriously destabilizing Skyservice's existing operations and its attempts to structure its affairs with a view to continuing in the long term.

30. The Amended and Restated Credit Agreement required Skyservice to continue to retain FTI Consulting Canada Inc. ("FTI") to monitor the cash and payables position of Skyservice. FTI had been retained by Skyservice in January to report to the Lenders and provide weekly monitoring of cash and payables. The scope of FTT's retainer included providing financial, strategic, and restructuring advice; assisting Skyservice in negotiating with customers and creditors; and providing a weekly report to TCCI, among others.

31. In addition, TCCI agreed to pay its tariffs to Skyservice without any set-off against the Secured Debt (article 2.05 of the Amended and Restated Credit Agreement). The parties entered into the First Amending Agreement on March 12, 2010, adjusting the tariff payable on March 23, 2010, to reflect a change to the flight schedule. The First Amending Agreement, excluding commercially sensitive schedules, is attached as Exhibit "G".

32. Finally, TCCI agreed to subordinate (the "Subordination Agreement") its security to that of Gibralt to a cap of $7,087,500 plus enforcement expenses. Both parties agreed that Skyservice would not repay either Gibralt or TCCI before March 30, 2010, without prior written consent.

33. On March 30, 2010, Skyservice had a positive cash position with more than sufficient funds to repay the amount owing to Gibralt in full. I am informed by Jamie Farrar (Executive Vice President of Gibralt), that on March 30, 2010, as it was clear that Skyservice would not be able to reach an agreement with any other party to secure the necessary working capital or to achieve the cost structure required for a long-term viable model for continued operations, Gibralt sent a demand letter and a notice of intent to enforce security ("NOI") under section 244 of the BIA to Skyservice. The demand letter and NOI are attached hereto as Exhibits "H" and "I", respectively. I am informed by Graham Bailey, Skyservice's CFO, that on March 30, 2010, Skyservice transferred $7,151,311.62 to Gibralt to repay the secured indebtedness owing to Gibralt.

34. Through these arrangements, TCCI supported Skyservice and not only permitted Skyservice to continue business in the short term but also afforded Skyservice more time to look for a longer term solution to its financial difficulties.

Skyservice's efforts to preserve its business

35. Article 2.09 of the Amended and Restated Credit Agreement required Skyservice and TCCI to "negotiate in good faith toward a long-term renewal of the existing business relationship between [Skyservice] and [TCCI]". Skyservice and TCCI have engaged in good faith negotiations and various proposals have been tabled; however, no agreement establishing a long-term renewal of the business has been reached.

36. Unfortunately, over the past few weeks, it became increasingly clear that Skyservice would not be able to reach an agreement with any other party to secure the necessary working capital or to achieve the cost structure required for a long-term viable model for continued operations.

Appointing a Receiver

37. TCCI was confronted with some very difficult decisions arising from Skyservice's financial problems. TCCI was dependent on Skyservice for its chartered aircraft requirements to satisfy existing Sunquest travel commitments and was advised that Skyservice could cease operations as early as February 5, 2010, unless TCCI was prepared to transition from the role of Skyservice's customer to Skyservice's lender. The eventual agreement to do so was only made after considerable deliberation and after concluding that the proposed agreement represented the only opportunity for Skyservice to make new arrangements that would allow continued operations on a longer term basis.

38. The urgency of this situation is illustrated by the fact that TCCI negotiated and concluded the Assignment and Assumption Agreement and related documentation within a two-week period. Had these negotiations failed, Skyservice would have stopped operating at a much earlier date with the resulting adverse consequences to its customers and other stakeholders.

39. TCCI continued its negotiations with Skyservice following completion of the revised lending documentation; both parties recognized that a lot was at stake including the continuing employment of Skyservice's employees. Regrettably, Skyservice could not secure the additional working capital or requisite cost structure for continued operations that might have facilitated the negotiations of revised agreements with TCCI and possibly other customers. However, I believe that TCCI and Skyservice exhausted all potential avenues to address Skyservice's financial problems, including that TCCI has not withdrawn any capital from Skyservice other than payments in the ordinary course of business. Unfortunately, Skyservice's economic and financial hurdles were ultimately too great to overcome.

40. On March 29, 2010, I was informed by ^{Robert Thornton, counsel to Skyservice} ~~Skyservice~~ that all of Skyservice's directors and officers intended to resign on March 30, 2010. I am informed by my counsel, Mary Paterson, that the directors and officers resigned at approximately 5:30 p.m. on March 30, 2010.

41. TCCI sent a demand letter and a NOI under section 244 of the BIA to Skyservice dated March 30, 2010. The demand letter and NOI are attached hereto as Exhibits "J" and "K", respectively.

42. ^(Rob Giguere and Johnny Ciampi) The Skyservice Representatives informed me that it will not be able to both repay the Secured Debt and continue operations after March 30, 2010, as it will not have sufficient working capital. I believe that Skyservice is insolvent. It no longer has directors or officers. A Court-appointed receiver is necessary to ensure an orderly wind-down of Skyservice's business and to protect stakeholders as well as to properly and efficiently dispose of Skyservice's real and leasehold property and other assets for the benefit of Skyservice's creditors.

43. Skyservice has acknowledged receipt of the demand and NOI, that the Secured Debt is due and owing, that it is unable to make payment of the Secured Debt, and has consented to the immediate enforcement of the security described in the NOI, and waived the 10-day period referred to in section 244(2) of the BIA. This acknowledgement and consent to earlier enforcement of security is attached hereto as Exhibit "L".

Impact of the Receivership

44. Skyservice currently has two primary customers: TCCI and Signature Vacations. If a receiver is appointed, then the operations of Skyservice will cease and passengers on TCCI's and Signature Vacations's tours must travel to and from their destinations on planes operated by a different provider.

45. When service is disrupted mid-season and travellers are stranded at their destination, the Travel Industry Act and regulations obliges tour operators like TCCI to offer the customer the choice of a full and immediate refund or comparable alternate travel services acceptable to the customer. TCCI does not have a fleet of aircraft to transport its Sunquest customers and therefore has purchased capacity on other providers' aircraft to ensure that travellers will return home with minimal disruption. As of the date of swearing this affidavit, comparable alternatives have been located for all TCCI Sunquest travellers, including the 3,050 travellers who will be at their holiday destination on March 31 and the approximately 7,000 travellers leaving for vacation after March 31, 2010.

46. I am not aware of the extent, if any, of discussions between Signature Vacations and Skyservice relating to Skyservice's financial problems and the fact that Skyservice is financially unable to continue operations beyond March 30, 2010. If Signature Vacations is not aware of these circumstances, it will be confronted with a 'hard stop' and will have to immediately take steps to address the travel requirements of its customers. The tour operation business often has to confront operational issues such as this as the economic prospects of airline carriers have been uncertain in recent years and tour operators have gained experience in dealing with this type of situation, including the 'hard stop' of Jetsgo, CanJet, and Canada 3000. The recent merger between Signature Vacations and Sunwing Vacations will likely assist in providing solutions to Signature Vacations through Sunwing Airlines. Otherwise, Signature Vacations will have to access the available capacity of other Canadian airlines as its destinations are served by multiple carriers.

47. I have been advised by Rob Giguere (President and CEO of Skyservice) that Skyservice is scheduled to operate one flight for another tour operator on Wednesday, March 31, with approximately 180 outbound passengers and 190 inbound passengers. I have also been advised that Skyservice is scheduled to operate five flights on Thursday and seven flights on Friday for another tour operator. TCCI has arranged for the availability of selected flight capacity that will be made available to assist other tour operators, if they so choose, in the ordinary course of making arrangements for alternative transportation for passengers in the 48 hours after the Receiver is appointed (or longer if necessary and possible).

48. Skyservice also has other European customers that use Skyservice during the summer months, including the European related company of TCCI. As far as I am aware, none of those customers have passengers currently at their destination; thus, no passengers will be stranded. In addition, as far as I am aware, these European customers will have some time to find a different service provider so the travellers may go on their vacations with minimal disruption.

49. Notwithstanding that TCCI has been able to transition the travel requirements of its customers, TCCI will suffer financially when Skyservice ceases operations. TCCI pays Skyservice in advance for flights based on estimates of costs. However, costs change and, by the end of the flight season, there is a variance between the amount the tour operator paid to Skyservice and the amount that should have been paid. This variance can be owed by or to Skyservice. As of the date of swearing this affidavit, Skyservice owes TCCI approximately $12 million.

Role of the Receiver¹

(a) Preserving and realizing on assets

50. The role of the Receiver will be to realize on Skyservice's assets and manage creditor and stakeholder concerns in an efficient and orderly fashion. The Receiver will not operate Skyservice's business. A court-ordered stay will be necessary to assist the Receiver in ensuring that creditors are paid in the proper priority. Furthermore, I have been informed by Graham Bailey, the Chief Financial Officer of Skyservice, and Jamie Farrar ~~Skyservice~~ that they will have in excess of $8 million in cash as of the close of business on March 30, 2010. The appointment of a Receiver is therefore required to ensure that no creditors of Skyservice take precipitous steps to get control of the cash to the prejudice of other stakeholders who may also have claims to such monies. In this manner, the rights of the stakeholders will be safeguarded and the Receiver will have some breathing space to assess any competing claims asserted against Skyservice's assets.

51. As mentioned above, Skyservice owns a low-rise industrial building near Pearson. In addition, Skyservice owns hangar(s) at Pearson on land subleased from the Greater Toronto Airports Authority. Skyservice may have other physical assets and certainly leases space at airports across the country and around the world. The Receiver will also realize on Skyservice's accounts receivable and any other assets, including intellectual property.

(b) Managing stakeholder concerns

52. Skyservice has five categories of operationally important stakeholders: navigation fees, handling fees, fuel, landing fees, and other.

53. Skyservice pays navigation fees to Nav Canada and the Federal Aviation Administration for overflight fees. As of March 22, 2010, the accrual account payable is $1,426,404. In addition, Skyservice pays handling fees to GlobeGround, Ogden Aviation Mexico, and others for other services received at the respective airports. As of March 22, 2010, the accrual account payable is $700,716.

54. Skyservice prepays Imperial Oil and World Fuel Services Inc. for its fuel. Skyservice prepays landing fees to the Greater Toronto Airports Authority. It also prepays ground handling and passenger taxes in Cuba, Mexico, and the Dominican Republic and for tourist cards in Cuba and the Dominican Republic. As a result, I believe that none of these stakeholders are creditors.

55. As described above, Skyservice leases certain of its planes from Thomas Cook Airlines. In the ordinary course of Skyservice's business, the planes would return to Europe to provide flights in Europe during the summer. Thomas Cook Airlines requested that the planes be returned to Europe by the end of March to prepare for the summer season; I believe that all of Thomas Cook Airlines' planes will be in Europe on or before March 31. Thomas Cook Airlines was also aware of Skyservice's financial difficulties and the likelihood that Skyservice would not have the funds to operate after March 30, 2010.

56. I have no information about the location of the other planes leased by Skyservice and the Receiver will have to co-ordinate any issues with the lessors of such planes.

57. I am informed by ^{Rob Giguere} Skyservice and believe that Skyservice has paid all of its employees' wages, vacation pay and overtime, as well as employee overtime and employee/employer deductions on payroll and vacation pay such that no money is currently owing to any of the employees. Skyservice also paid other statutory priority payables, including GST and PST. Skyservice made these payments with money that it set aside approximately three months ago. I understand that this step was taken by the officers and directors of Skyservice to ensure that all such obligations were satisfied in full in the event that Skyservice was ultimately unable to continue operations after March 30, 2010.

Requirements in section 243(1) of the BIA

58. TCCI is a secured creditor of Skyservice. Although due and payable, Skyservice has not paid the amount owing to TCCI under the Amended and Restated Credit Agreement. Skyservice's failure to pay is an event of default under article 2.06(a) of the Amended and Restated Credit Agreement.

59. TCCI is committed to ensuring that the best steps are taken for the benefit of all stakeholders in a situation that is recognized as being difficult and, because of the nature of Skyservice's business, urgent. In this regard, it has approached FTI, which already has an understanding of Skyservice's assets and obligations, to act as Receiver and a copy of the executed consent of FTI is attached as Exhibit "M". FTI is a licensed trustee.

Receiver's Charge

60. I am informed by my counsel, Mary Paterson, that the model order for receiverships grants the Receiver a charge on the Property as security for fees and disbursements incurred before and after the Court appoints the Receiver (the "Receiver's Charge"). I am informed ^{✓ by her} that the Court can order that the Receiver's charge be in priority to other validly attached and perfected security interests subject to the Court being satisfied that such a priority is appropriate in the circumstances.

61. This application for an order appointing FTI as Receiver of Skyservice is being brought without notice to several secured creditors. I am informed by my counsel, Mary Paterson, that the PPSA search for Skyservice (and its French names) fills a banker's box. I am informed ^{✓ by her} that the summary of this PPSA search is 757 pages long. The vast majority of the registrations relate to specific assets (such as aircraft or aircraft leases).

62. TCCI does not intend to seek a Court order that would place the Receiver's Charge ahead of any validly registered mortgage, lien or charge on the real property of the Debtor or ahead of any validly attached and perfected security interest in a specific identified asset of the Debtor identified on the PPSA register.

63. Only four secured creditors have registrations set out in the PPSA Register that do not appear to relate to a specific asset. On March 29, 2010, I was informed by Sabah Mirza, Skyservice's former general counsel, that, to the best of her knowledge, she believes that one of these secured creditors (PNC Bank, National Association) in fact only has security over specified aircraft components and not general security. Another secured creditor (IOS Financial Services) only has security over specific photocopiers and printers that are leased by Skyservice and not general security. The third registration, that of CBSC Capital, relates to a lease of photocopier and printing equipment that is no longer in place such that the PPSA registration should have been discharged. The final secured creditor (Royal Bank of Canada) registered security related to letters of credit; however, I am informed ^{✓ by her} that these letters of credit are cash collateralized.

Confidential information

64. The tour operator industry is a highly competitive industry. Some of the schedules to the exhibits attached to this affidavit contain sensitive pricing information. TCCI and its senior management have developed significant expertise in negotiating agreements that are particular to its operating business model and are always kept confidential. Disclosing the sensitive pricing information contained in the exhibits would therefore be prejudicial to TCCI's future operations as competitors will know TCCI's pricing sensitivities and will gain unfair advantage in negotiations with airline carriers and customer pricing. TCCI therefore did not include these schedules in the exhibits to this affidavit and, if requested, will produce them for inspection by this Honourable Court together with a request for a sealing order.

Conclusion

65. A receiver appointed under section 243(1) of the BIA will be able to ensure an orderly wind-down of Skyservice's operations: it will address the concerns of passengers, tour operators, and other stakeholders and creditors and ensure fair treatment of all such stakeholders.

SIGNATURE Les spéciaux de Pâques

Actualités du vendredi 12 mars 2010

Colin Hunter, président de Sunwing :

Y a-t-il un avenir pour la marque Signature au Québec?

Y a-t-il un avenir pour la marque Signature, au Québec? Nous avons posé la question à Colin Hunter, chef de la direction du Groupe Sunwing. Sa réponse : à Toronto et dans l'Ouest canadien, où il s'agit encore d'une marque forte, c'est certain! Mais c'est loin d'être sûr au Québec, où Signature est devenu un joueur bien marginal!

Le président de Sunwing nous parle des pertes de Signature, des objectifs pour la marque, et de sa détermination de devenir un joueur important sur l'Europe. Et il émet des prédictions surprenantes, mais logiques...

Pourquoi les dirigeants de TUI ont-ils contracté ce partenariat avec vous et pourquoi vous ont-ils confié le contrôle de Vacances Signature?

Parce que Signature perdait beaucoup d'argent et que leurs parts de marché s'effritaient continuellement depuis 15 ans.

Les gens de TUI nous ont approchés, voici deux ans, mais nous n'étions pas vraiment intéressés. Voici un an, cependant, nous avons réalisé que nous avions besoin de ressources supplémentaires, si nous voulions continuer à orchestrer notre expansion au même rythme que les dernières années.

Les négociations ont été longues, parce que nous avons impliqué Scotia Capital, la division de la Banque Scotia qui s'occupe de fusions et acquisitions. Une compagnie publique comme TUI a besoin de la caution d'une grande institution financière pour justifier ce genre de transactions auprès de ses actionnaires.

TUI savait que nous avions rapidement des parts de marché au Canada, alors que leur filiale, Signature, perdait continuellement du terrain. En 1995, Signature faisait voyager 800 000 clients. L'an dernier, ils n'en traitaient plus que 300 000 et, au cours des 15 dernières années, ils avaient accumulé des pertes de 60 M$.

Au Royaume-Uni, les l.o. n'ont pas changé leurs méthodes pour s'adapter à la concurrence des transporteurs à bas tarifs : ils continuent à vendre des forfaits de sept ou 14 jours, alors que la demande pour des forfaits plus souples croît rapidement. Cela pousse les consommateurs à se tourner vers les low cost...

De la même manière, les dirigeants de Signature, au Canada, ne s'adaptaient pas aux nouvelles contraintes du marché. Nous avons tiré les leçons de l'expérience européenne : nous avons introduit des forfaits de trois, quatre, 10 et 11 jours, voici quatre ans, et nous en vendons de plus en plus.

« Au Québec, où ils ne faisaient plus voyager que 25 000 personnes en hiver, la marque Vacances Signature ne signifie plus grand-chose! »

Oui, mais les low cost sont moins agressifs en Amérique du Nord! Cela ne suffit pas à expliquer les déboires de Signature!

Ils sont moins agressifs, c'est vrai. Mais lorsqu'Air Canada ou WestJet annoncent des ventes de sièges sur le Sud, nous le sentons passer. Même si, lorsqu'on rajoute les taxes et frais, leurs tarifs ne sont pas si intéressants que ça, il y a des milliers de consommateurs qui s'y laissent prendre.

Combien de personnes Vacances Signature employait-elle et combien en récupérez-vous sur le nombre?

Signature employait environ 300 personnes, dont une trentaine au Québec. Ici, nous en avons gardé un, aux groupes. Pour le reste du Canada, je ne peux pas vous répondre, parce que la restructuration est toujours en cours.

Vous avez annoncé que vous alliez conserver la marque. N'est-ce pas difficile de commercialiser deux marques de front? Transat le fait avec Vacances Transat et Nolitours, mais tout le monde sait bien qu'en fait, il s'agit de la même compagnie...

Les agents de voyages et les membres de l'industrie le savent, mais la majorité des consommateurs l'ignorent. Dans la mesure où Signature est une marque qui signifie encore quelque chose aux yeux des consommateurs, nous serions fous de la saborder. Par contre, nous veillerons à bien différencier les portefeuilles de produits de Sunwing et de Signature.

Et si nous sommes déterminés à conserver la marque, ce n'est pas nécessairement le cas au Québec. Nous la conserverons dans le reste du Canada, où la marque est encore bien implantée. Mais au Québec, où ils ne faisaient plus voyager que 25 000 personnes en hiver, la marque Vacances Signature ne signifie plus grand-chose. Il n'est donc pas dit que nous la conservions pour le marché francophone.

« On savait bien que WestJet »

*Vacations allait
tenter d'augmenter ses parts de marché, mais personne ne s'attendait à ce qu'ils frappent aussi fort. »*

Signature faisait voyager 300 000 consommateurs au Canada et Sunwing 600 000. Quels sont vos objectifs pour les prochaines années?

J'aimerais bien vous dire que notre objectif sera de 1 million de voyageurs pour 2011. Mais on sait que dans le cas de fusions, 2 + 2, ça ne donne pas nécessairement 4. Donc, 600 000 plus 300 000, ça risque de donner 800 000 plutôt que 900 000 ou 1 million. Nous essayerons de faire en sorte que cela donne 1 million, mais cela dépendra de la conjoncture et d'un tas d'autres facteurs.

Continuerez-vous à faire affaire avec d'autres transporteurs que Sunwing Airlines pour acheminer les clients de Signature?

La saison achève et le contrat qui liait Signature à Air Transat arrive à terme. Dès cet été, tous les passagers qui achèteront un forfait de Signature voyageront sur Sunwing Airlines.

Lorsque vous achetez des sièges à votre principal concurrent, vous jouez avec le danger. Il est normal que ce concurrent soit porté à vous revendre ses sièges à des conditions moins intéressantes qu'il ne le fait à sa filiale grossiste. Cela ne peut pas déboucher sur une relation commerciale heureuse.

Tours Mont-Royal le fait bien depuis des années, tout en restant un joueur important!

Je ne crois pas que cela se fasse dans le cadre d'une relation commerciale heureuse. Pour finir de répondre à votre question, Signature est encore liée pour deux ans à Skyservice, dans le reste du Canada. Les dirigeants de ce transporteur nous ont approchés pour nous sonder. Nous allons voir ce que nos discussions avec eux vont donner.

Croyez-vous qu'on verra d'autres consolidations sur le marché canadien?

Thomas Cook perd de l'argent. Ils ne pourront pas continuer longtemps au même rythme. Si j'étais un des dirigeants européens de Thomas Cook, j'approcherais Transat pour réaliser une fusion et un partenariat du même type que celui que nous venons de finaliser avec TUI.

Vous venez de lancer un programme de vols vers l'Europe avec Corsairfly, qui est une des nombreuses filiales de TUI. Mais il s'agit d'un programme relativement modeste, si on le compare à votre opération Sud. Avez-vous l'intention de frapper plus fort l'été prochain et, aussi, de proposer des vols vers l'Europe au départ de Toronto?

Il s'agit effectivement d'un programme modeste. Corsairfly a d'autres bons clients au Québec, notamment Tours Mont-Royal et Skylink, si bien qu'ils ne pouvaient pas nous attribuer autant de sièges que nous l'aurions voulu.

Nous ne commercialisons pas de vols vers l'Europe au départ de Toronto, cette année, mais cela pourrait changer dès l'an prochain. Le Canada et l'Union européenne viennent de signer un nouvel accord sur le transport aérien, qui prévoit que l'Union européenne sera considérée comme un seul pays. Cela permettra, par exemple, à une compagnie allemande de voler vers le Canada au départ de la France, du Royaume-Uni ou d'un autre pays de la Communauté européenne. Bref, cela confèrera beaucoup plus de souplesse à notre partenaire TUI dans le déploiement des flottes de ses différentes compagnies aériennes.

D'ici la fin de l'été, nous aurons une vision plus claire de ce qu'il nous sera permis de faire. Chose certaine, nous sommes déterminés à devenir un joueur important sur l'Europe. Est-ce que ce sera dès l'an prochain? Nous l'espérons, mais nous voulons nous donner le temps de mettre les choses en place correctement.

« Thomas Cook ne pourra pas continuer à perdre autant d'argent au Canada. Si j'étais un des dirigeants européens de Thomas Cook, j'approcherais Transat pour réaliser une fusion et un partenariat du même type que celui que nous venons de finaliser avec TUI. »

Transat vient de déclarer une perte nette de 13,9 M$ et une baisse de revenus de l'ordre de 9,7 % pour le trimestre clos le 31 janvier. Avez-vous également enregistré une baisse de revenus pour la même période?

La baisse a affecté nos marges, mais nous n'avons pas enregistré de perte. Nous avons limité les dégâts parce que nous exerçons un contrôle très serré sur nos coûts et que nous avons anticipé une baisse de la demande. Ainsi, nous avons réduit la flotte qui est passée de 14 à 12 appareils pour l'hiver.

La perte essuyée par Transat – et le recul de la demande chez nous – est attribuable, non seulement à une baisse de la demande, mais aussi à un joker que personne n'avait vu venir, du moins pas avec une telle vigueur : WestJet Vacations.

S'ils ont maintenu un profil plutôt bas au Québec, cela n'a pas été le cas en Ontario et dans l'Ouest canadien où ils ont matraqué le marché à coup d'annonces insérées dans les grands quotidiens et dans les magazines. On savait bien que WestJet Vacations allait tenter d'augmenter ses parts de marché, mais personne ne s'attendait à ce qu'ils frappent aussi fort.

Entretenez-vous des projets d'expansion dans d'autres pays?

Pas en ce moment. Du temps où je travaillais pour Adventure Tours, nous avions une antenne à Dallas où nous vendions un hôtel des Bahamas, qui faisait un tabac, aussi bien sur le marché texan qu'au Canada : le Jack Tarr Village, sur Grand Bahama.

Le marché de Dallas présente un potentiel intéressant, tout comme d'autres grandes villes du sud des États-Unis, notamment Atlanta et Miami. Mais en ce moment, nous avons largement de quoi nous occuper au Canada, alors il n'est pas question de lancer une offensive à l'étranger. Nous voulons d'abord continuer à prendre de l'expansion au Canada.

Pour prendre encore beaucoup d'expansion, vous aurez besoin de capitaux... Envisagez-vous de devenir une compagnie publique cotée en bourse?

Je n'en vois pas la nécessité actuellement. Notre partenariat avec TUI va nous donner accès à suffisamment de ressources pour que nous ne soyons pas obligés d'aller chercher des capitaux en bourse. Ils ont des avions, des hôtels, des navires de croisières...

As of the date hereof, the Principal Sum is the only amount owing by the Borrower to the Lender under this Agreement. The Principal Sum and other amounts that may be owing from time to time hereunder by the Borrower to the Lender, including all accrued and unpaid fees and all expenses, reimbursements, indemnities and other obligations of the Borrower to the Lender arising under the Loan Documents, (collectively, the "Obligations") shall not bear interest at any time. The Borrower may not prepay the Principal Sum in whole or in part at any time prior to the Maturity Date unless it has the prior written consent of the Lender.

2.02 Discharge.

Upon irrevocable and indefeasible payment in full by the Borrower of all Obligations, without any reduction or abatement, this agreement shall terminate and the Lender shall, on request therefor by the Borrower, forthwith discharge all registrations in respect of this agreement or any security or other agreement delivered in connection herewith, but until that time this agreement shall remain in full force and effect despite the repayment or satisfaction from time to time of any part of the Obligations. If the Lender is required under applicable law to turn over or otherwise pay to the Borrower or any other Person, or to the estate of the Borrower any amount received by the Lender from the Borrower in payment of the Obligations, then the Obligations shall be reinstated to the extent of such amount and the Lender shall have all rights and remedies under this Agreement and the Loan Documents in respect of such amounts and this Agreement shall be reinstated in full force and effect so as to permit the Lender to exercise its rights and remedies with respect to such amount.

- (c) if any act, matter or thing is done toward, or any action or proceeding is launched or taken to terminate the corporate existence of the Borrower, whether by winding-up, surrender of charter or otherwise;

- (e) the Borrower (1) fails to pay its obligations arising in the ordinary course when due (other than a failure to make a payment which does not negatively impact the operation of the business of the Borrower and provided that such failure to pay is disclosed in the weekly cash flows provided to the Lender) or (2) fails to pay and discharge promptly all Priority Payables when due and all payments in respect of aircraft leases and maintenance reserves for aircraft operated by an Obligor on behalf of the Lender when due, and in each case under sub paragraphs (1) and (2), such failure continues unremedied for more than 1 Business Day;

- (g) subject to the terms of the charter agreements then in effect between the Borrower and the Lender, Borrower fails to maintain flights in accordance with Schedule D attached hereto;

Subject to the terms of the Subordination Agreement, if an Event of Default occurs, then the whole of the Obligations remaining unpaid shall be immediately due and payable, without any further requirement for notice or demand.

2.07 Security and Escrow Funds

The parties hereto acknowledge and agree that all guarantees and security granted by the Borrower or any other Obligor, including without limitation the security listed in Schedule "A" hereto (the "Security") will continue in full force and effect as security for the Obligations of the Borrower or the Obligors, as the case may be. 2.11 Confirmation and Acknowledgment

The Borrower and the Guarantors confirm and acknowledge that the obligations and liabilities of the Borrower owing to the original lenders under the Original Credit Agreement have been assigned to the Lender, that such obligations and liabilities remain obligations of the Borrower (and that the Lender has no obligation to advance further funds to the Borrower) and that the security and other Loan Documents granted by the Borrower and Guarantors have been assigned to Thomas Cook Canada Inc. as Agent for itself as Lender.

AFFIDAVIT OF STEVEN GOLICK

I, Steven Golick, of the City of Toronto, in the Province of Ontario, MAKE OATH AND SAY AS FOLLOWS:

1. I am a partner in the law firm of Osler, Hoskin & Harcourt LLP, solicitors for Thomas Cook Canada Inc. ("Thomas Cook"), with carriage of this proceeding and therefore have knowledge of the matters hereinafter deposed. I make this affidavit in support of the application of FTI Consulting Canada Inc. (the "Receiver"), in its capacity as court-appointed receiver of Skyservice Airlines Inc. ("Skyservice") for approval of a payment in partial settlement of Thomas Cook's Legal Costs (defined below).
2. The Receiver was appointed pursuant to the Order (the "Order") of the Honourable Mr. Justice Gans dated March 31, 2010 (the "Appointment Date"). A copy of the Order is attached as Exhibit "A" hereto.
3. Thomas Cook incurred $573,866.06 (including fees, disbursements and GST) from January 1, 2010 to July 27, 2010 of legal costs in connection with the insolvency of Skyservice (the "Legal Costs"). The bulk of the costs prior to the appointment of the Receiver were incurred in the period from February 1 to March 31, 2010 in the amount of $398,346.48. The bulk of the post receivership costs were incurred in the period from April 1, 2010 to June 29, 2010 in the amount $169,378.14. While there are additional costs that have been incurred by Thomas Cook subsequent thereto, for the purposes of this application they are not material.

4. Attached hereto as Exhibit "B" are redacted copies of Osler Hoskin & Harcourt LLP's legal invoices to Thomas Cook in connection with the receivership of Skyservice from February 1 to June 29, 2010. The hourly rates charged and the hours spent are noted for each invoice and represent the standard hourly rates of Osler, Hoskin & Harcourt LLP for the individual lawyers involved. Each of the invoices has been paid by Thomas Cook. Certain of the docket entries have been redacted to preserve solicitor client privilege, and for the purposes of this motion, the redacted docket entries may be considered as not forming part of the secured claim for legal costs.
5. This affidavit is sworn in support of the approval by this Honourable Court of the resolution of the Costs Claim as described in the Eleventh Report of the Receiver dated September 14, 2011 as recommended by the Receiver and not for any improper purpose.

The whole of the Property shall be and is hereby charged by way of a fixed and specific charge (the "Receiver's Borrowings Charge") as security for the payment of the monies borrowed, together with interest and charges thereon, in priority to all security interests, trusts, liens, charges and encumbrances, statutory or otherwise, in favour of any Person, but subordinate in priority to the Receiver's Charge and the charges as set out in sections 14.06(7), 81.4(4), and 81.6(2) of the BIA and subordinate to any validly registered mortgage, lien or charge on the real property of the Debtor (other than any registrations in favour of TCCI or Gibralt) or to any validly attached and perfected security interest in a specific identified asset of the Debtor identified on the PPSA register.

21. THIS COURT ORDERS that neither the Receiver's Borrowings Charge nor any other security granted by the Receiver in connection with its borrowings under this Order shall be enforced without leave of this Court.

22. THIS COURT ORDERS that the Receiver is at liberty and authorized to issue certificates substantially in the form annexed as Schedule "A" hereto (the "Receiver's Certificates") for any amount borrowed by it pursuant to this Order.
